

Film 5: Jessica and James - “I’ll be with you in one second”

In this film Jessica is a personable supervisor but she is not giving her full attention to supervision.

Questions for reflection:

1. How does this film highlight what is important about supervision?
2. How do you think James might be feeling? What steps might he take to get what he needs from supervision?
3. What are your thoughts about the supervision relationship between James and Jessica?
4. How might we renegotiate a supervision relationship?
